

Foreign Service Network Digital Services for Consular Corps

We provide websites and collaboration tools for Honorary Consulates, Consulates General, Embassies, and Consular Corps around the world.

A secured and cloud-based platform for your online presence, content, and communications. Easy setup, simple usage, and reliable support.

Consular Corps

Receive your own customizable website for your jurisdiction. Showcase information, officers, countries, links, and other material. Control everything via an administration panel and collaborate within your group through a secure Console. Your members can update their own contact information in real-time.

Ease of Use

No downloads or installations. Access your account and maintain your content online via an internet browser – computer, mobile, or tablet.

Secure Platform

Bank-level SSL encryption for all critical areas. The platform is physically hosted in the United States.

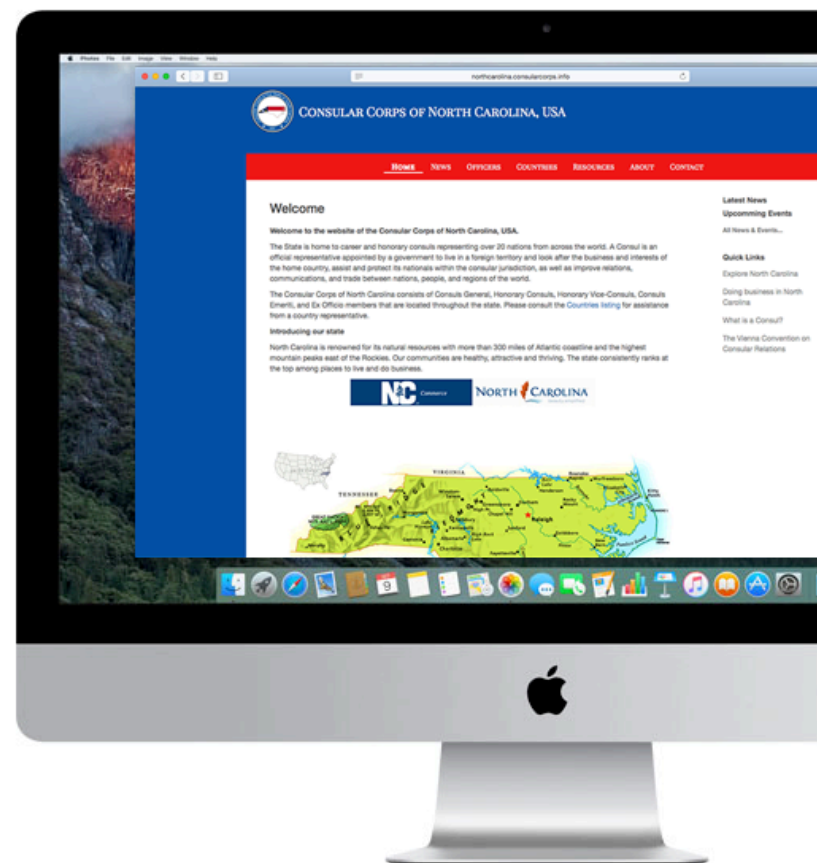

Trusted Governance

Managed by foreign relations experts and advised by dignitaries in the international community.

The features.

- Professional website: Showcase your content, including officers, countries, resources, images, links, and news. Mobile version included.
- Instant Setup: Receive your own ready-to-go homepage once your account is set up.
- No Charge: Free unlimited usage.
- Full access: Use all Consular Corps features without restrictions.
- Collaboration platform: Dashboard, info sidebar, updates, email distribution, directories, and more.
- Administrator account: Manage site content and members.
- Members own their info: Members receive their own profile page and maintain their own contact information.

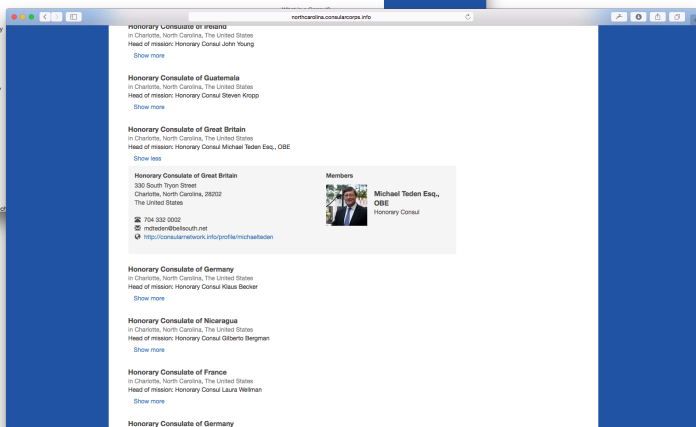

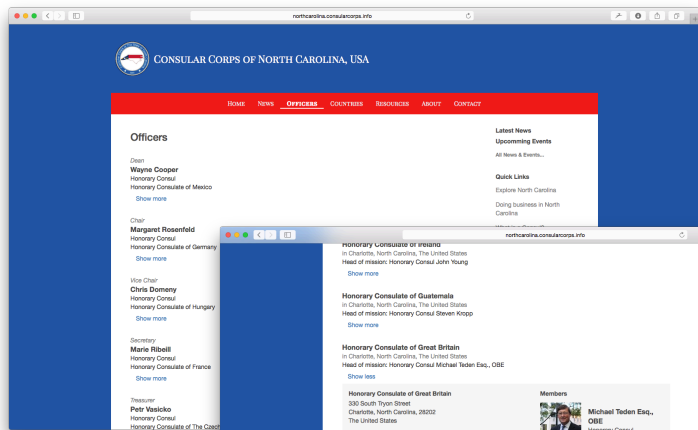

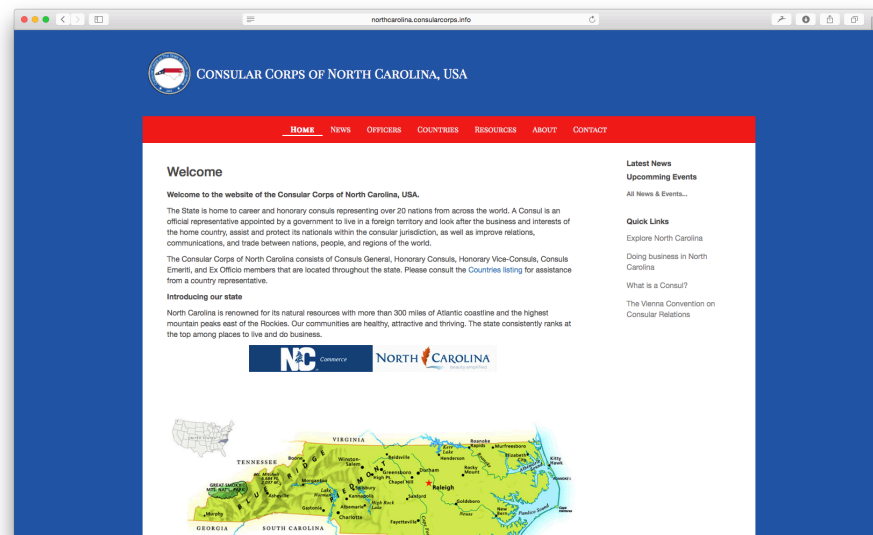

Get started

Receive a homepage that is part of the consularcorps.info domain name and receive a personalized sub-domain displaying your jurisdiction, e.g.: <http://northcarolina.consularcorps.info>.

Set your own colors, logo, and choose from various templates.

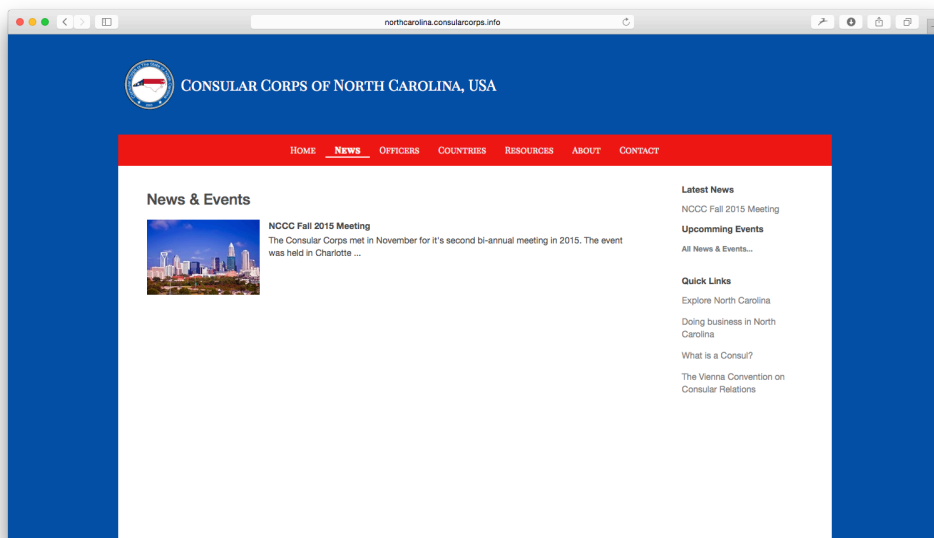

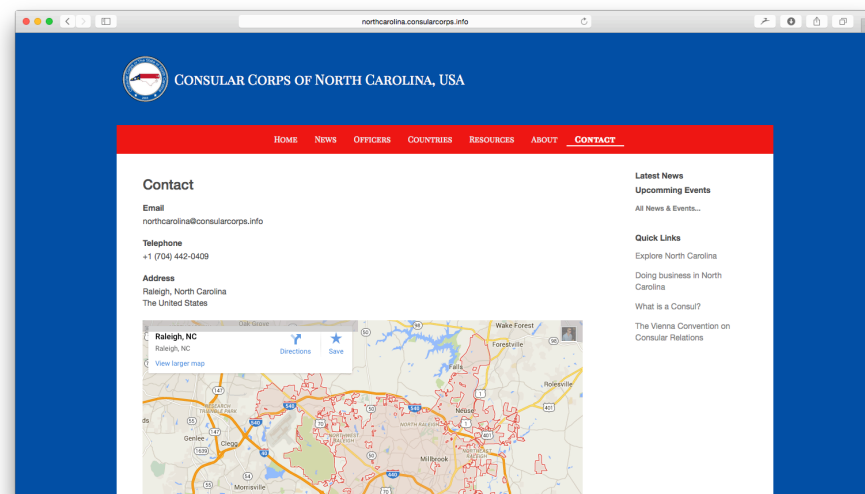

Add members

With a few clicks, add officers and country representatives from the global members list to your homepage directories. Your selections appear under the Officers and Countries tabs.

Enhanced contact

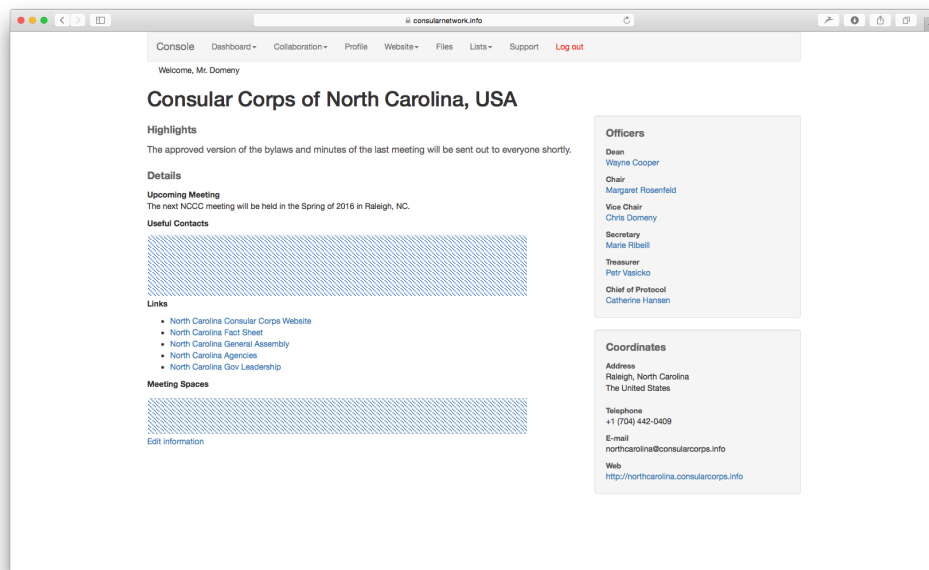

Your homepage comes equipped with a contact page that automatically displays your coordinates and a google map to pinpoint your address.

Receive an email forwarding address that matches your internet address to maintain your professional look (e.g. northcarolina@consularcorps.info). Specify to which officers to forward the incoming messages.

News & events

Keep your visitors and followers abreast of what's happening. Add news and events to your homepage, complete with images and text, and keep an online archive.

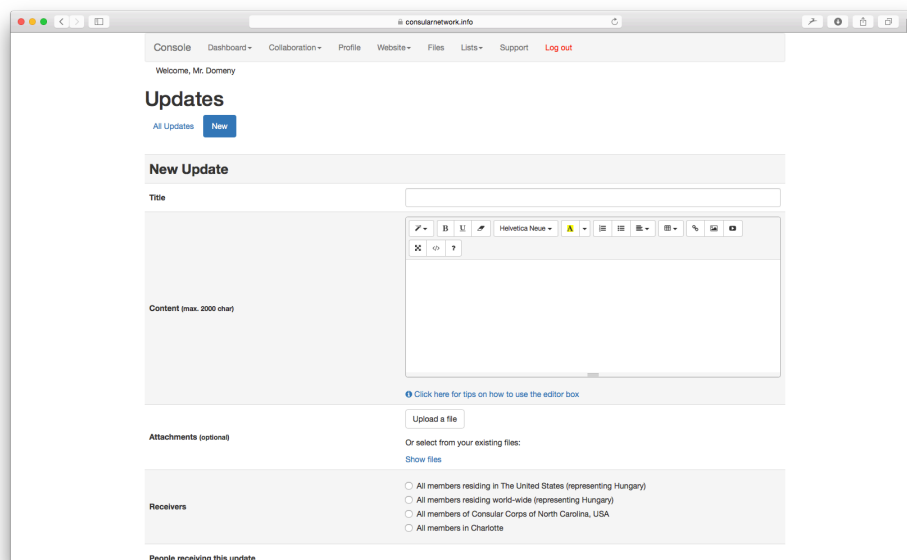

Your own dashboard

Every member has access to a private collaboration space that includes a dashboard, updates, directories, profile management, file upload, support, and more. On the dashboard, each member can view a tailored info wall, key information from groups, and other useful information.

Post updates

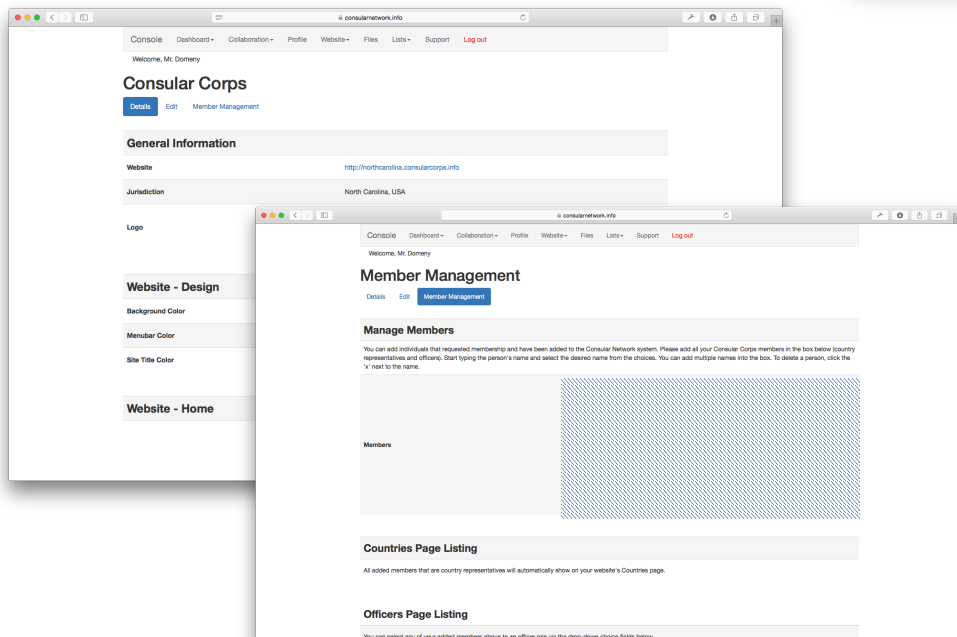

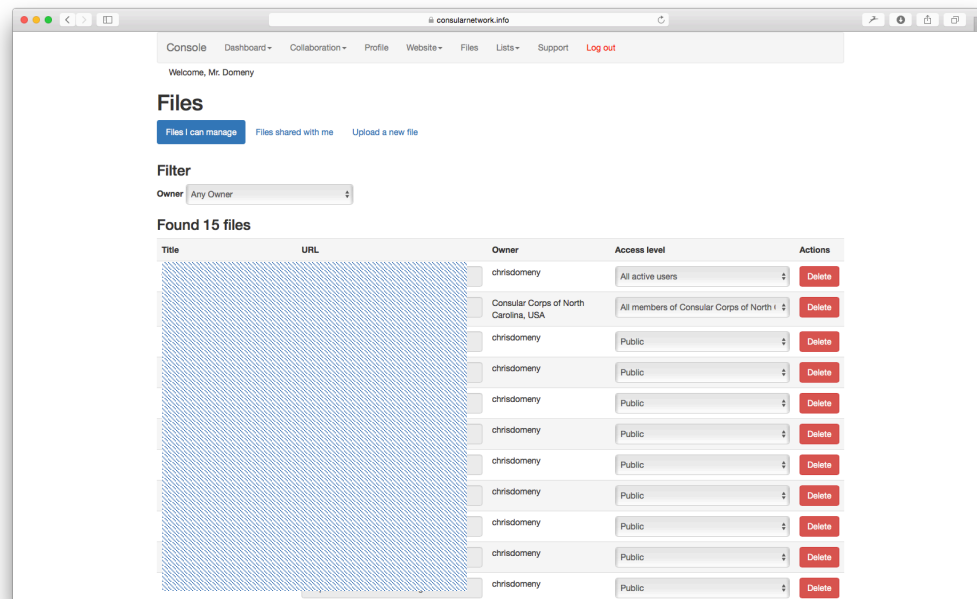

Easily share info with your Consular Corps community. Post news updates and articles and we show the content on the relevant members' info walls. We even email the message out to your targeted community members. And you can attach files, too.

Manage documents

Upload files and share them with your members and your website audience. Post them on your homepage, share direct links, and choose whether they are public and private.

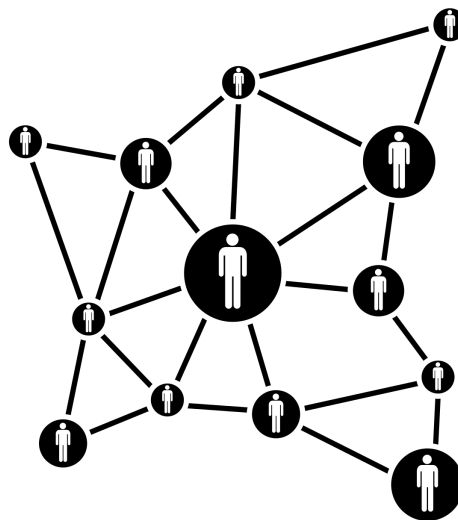

You're in charge

Get administrator access to your homepage and to your dashboard. Our content management system enables you to modify many aspects of the site.

Get connected.

U.S. Dept of State

Get listed on the U.S. Dept of State's Office of Foreign Missions website.

State agencies

Use your online presence to more easily connect with your local and state agencies and provide a quick way for them to reference all your members.

Foreign Service Network Search

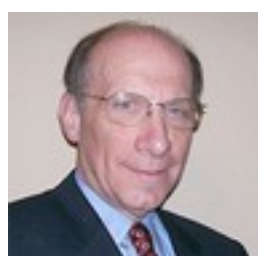

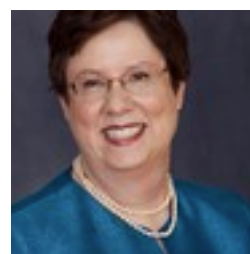

Be included in our public online directory that lists a growing number of Consular Corps and country representations.

Helpful for:

- Emergency Response
- Police Departments
- City Mayors
- State Leadership
- And more

Unlock the power of a global network.

Our central platform allows your members to connect with one another and with counterparts from other Consular Corps. Cultivate contacts, create opportunities, and convert them into better cross-regional relationships.

Always free?

We are proud to offer the use of our platform at no cost to all Consular Corps in the world. We recognize the tireless effort that Consular Corps officers put into their organizations in order to advance international relations for their regions. We also know that these efforts are often accomplished with little to no funding. Our contribution is meant to be a token of support that helps promote the cause of global understanding.

The Foreign Service Network

How does a Consular Corps get started?

First, we set up a free Consular Corps account in our system.

We work with a dedicated officer to create the account.

Next, we enable all the features and services for you.

We'll turn on your collaboration tools, website (if you need one), and all related administrative controls.

You invite all your members to create free individual accounts, so you can add them to your Consular Corps.

Some of your members may need to register a new account. Some may already be in our system through their governments' accounts.

And you're all set.

Start sharing internal announcements, publish news, add site content, and more.
